How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, do the first washing in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HAD BAD COUGH AND PAINS IN HER LUNGS

All well now, gaining weight and strength; does own housework.

"Last September I took a heavy cold. I kept getting worse until finally I had pains in my bronchial tubes and all through my lungs. I had a bad cough, could not sleep at night, and was so sore through my lungs that I could hardly stand it. I consulted three different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get any better. I suffered death a hundred times. One doctor told me I had a deep cold in the walls of my lungs. Another said I had bronchial trouble. He kept changing my medicine and burned me all over with electricity.

"I read in the paper about Milks Emulsion helping other people, so I thought I would try it. While I have only taken four small bottles, my lungs do not hurt me any more. My cough is gone and I have gained 4 pounds, and I am still gaining. I was able to do the first washing today that I have done since last September. In fact, I am now doing my work with pleasure and feel like it is a dream that I have my health again."

Mrs. Lida E. Schulte, 672 Congress St., Toledo, Ohio.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural lung action, doing away with all need of pills and physicians. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take a trial course with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold

THE DRUGGIST SAID
HYPO-COD WOULD BUILD ME UP

Dayton lady weak and nervous asked what she should take

"I was all worn out. I have worked hard all my life and I really began to believe I was going into a rapid decline. I was all rundown and felt tired and weary all the time. I slept fairly well but all through the night I would dream, dream—dream until in the morning I would wake up as tired and weary as when I went to bed. My nerves were almost shattered when I finally decided to suffer no longer and asked my druggist for a tonic. They told me Earle's Hypo-Cod was one of the best tonics they had so I bought a bottle. I've taken almost three bottles now and I feel stronger and better in every way. I am not nervous like I was and so I gladly recommend it to others." declared Mrs. Ida Phillips, 3124 Home Ave., Dayton O.

It certainly is an excellent recommendation for Hypo-Cod when a druggist says that this tonic is one of the best they have, when a hundred or more are on the shelf. Druggists, chemists and experts assert that Hypo-Cod is a most powerful reconstructive tonic. Drop in at your druggist tonight and read the formula on a bottle. Look for name of Earle Chemical Co., which is your assurance of quality and full strength.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns

THE PIE WE ARE MISSING BY NOT BEING IN THE LEAGUE.

It is a pity what a lot of high adventure and pleasant excitement the United States is missing these days by not belonging to the League of Nations, and Americans with nothing on their hands or minds to supply stimulating diversion either.

Here is a dashing little excursion or expedition getting up for Vilna, in which the league has ordered Great Britain, France, Belgium and Spain to take part. These powers must tell off detachments of troops to go and find out what it is the league wants done at Vilna. Of course, it wants somebody shot there, but whether it is Poles or Lithuanians who are to be shot, or both, the powers sending the troops are not informed, nor is it any of their business.

The United States misses out on this. Americans will not have the satisfaction of knowing a detachment of their army is shoveling snow in the Baltic region this winter, or guarding a frontier set up by the league and shooting peasants who step over it and getting shot at in return. We will miss out too on the sensations of reading accounts of victories won by the league, accompanied by the incidental casualty list that goes with such accounts. Nor will we have the further pleasurable experience of paying a share of the expense of this expedition.

Goodness knows what other adventures we are in the way of missing. The league has a lot of good things to pass out to the insiders. The Greek situation is looking very promising for a little shooting this winter, and some developments that may call for a trip to Turkey are not unlooked for. And Spain and the rest of them are going to get all the favors and we are going to have to stand on the outside and look on. We haven't even got one of the league vice presidencies, of which there are at least a dozen, nor a secretaryship of which there are three hundred. If we would only go in and take one or two of the league's wars on our hands we could have a vice president for the asking. As it is we've got to stay home and attend to a lot of unromantic domestic affairs that concern merely the welfare of our own country. It's a job we've been very successful in evading and neglecting for several years now, and but for our ill luck in not getting into the league we could go on evading and neglecting them for several years more.—Kansas City Star.

THE PEN OR THE HOE—TAKE NOTICE, ASPIRING YOUNG MAN.

If all people handled the hoe vigorously, and none of them the pen, there would be a great plenty of food. None need starve in such a case as that. And yet there might be a starving of the intellect, as seen in the face of "the man with the hoe" shown by the artist.

There must be the use of both hoe and pen, in order to the well-being of our race. But as it is easier to engage in manual labor, and there is a more general inclination to do this than to engage in mental toil, there must be a constant urging of young people to secure an education, and there must be special arguments made for the advantages of this sort of life and labor.

So it is that our Government presents statistics calculated to stir up the young people of the nation to secure an education, by some such statements as the following:

"Less than 1 per cent of American men are college graduates; yet this 1 per cent has furnished: Fifty-five per cent of our Presidents; 36 per cent of our members of Congress; 47 per cent of the Speakers of the House; 54 per cent of our Vice Presidents; 50 per cent of our Secretaries of State; 67 per cent of the Attorney Generals; 69 per cent of the Justices of the Supreme Court, and 50 per cent of the men composing the Constitution Convention of 1787."

We do not want all of our people to live by handling the hoe, but we must have many of them doing so or we must starve. We do not want all of our people to live by the use of the pen, but we must have some to do so or we shall sink to a lower plane of life than we can afford to occupy.

THE HALL OF FAME.

What is known as the Hall of Fame of New York University has recently had seven names added to its list of celebrities. One hundred and one electors chose these seven out of a great list of men and women who had been suggested to receive places in the colonnade surmounting University Heights and overlooking Hudson River. They were Samuel L. Clemens, better known as Mark Twain; James Buchanan Eads, engineer; Patrick Henry, patriot and statesman; William Thomas Green Morton, physician, discoverer of the ether anaesthesia; Augustus Saint-Gaudens, sculptor; Roger Williams, preacher and founder of the State of Rhode Island, and Alice Freeman Palmer, teacher. Of course, there was a great difference of opinion among the electors, as there will be among the members of the general public. But these secured a majority and they will have their names posted in a prominent place, where they are sure to remain for a long time.

Rippling Rhymes

THE GREAT BLESSING.
I had a weary siege of sickness that called for pink and purple pills; my humble roll lost all its thickness when I had paid the doctor's bills. And pharmacists and well trained nurses were chasing to me up the road, and undertakers with their hearsees were hanging round my sad abode. Now I am feeling vastly better, the gout and mumps have left my frame, likewise lumbago, croup and tetter, though rheumatiz still plays its game. No longer do I wear a plaster, there is no poultice on my form, and I'm not scared by bleak disaster, or by the ills that round me swarm. If one has health he is a craven to talk of grief and trouble sore, and croak, like Edgar Allan's raven, such balderdash as "Nevermore." Health is the only thing that matters, beside it other boons are vain, and men are surely mad as hatters who kick when they are free from pain. Recovered from my indigestion, and convalescent from the itch, I face my tasks without a question, and life seems full and sweet and rich. Yes, ugly problems crowd around me, and threats and things invade my den, but they can't daunt me or confound me, for I am feeling well again.

ADMITS HE TRAINED HIS DOG TO CATCH CHICKENS BELONGING TO HIS NEIGHBORS

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 23—Gyp the Blood, a canine of somewhat doubtful ancestry, was trained by his master Louis Kelley, of No. 423 Ira street, to catch chickens and bring them to his home according to evidence brought out at Kelley's trial before Magistrate George E. Johnson, in the Atlanta Police Court. Kelley was fined $6 for allowing his dog to run at large without being properly muzzled.

Kelley admitted he had trained Gyp to catch chickens. But the reason, he explained, was because neighbors' chickens had been flying into his yard and making the days and early mornings hideous.

"So I trained Gyp to catch them, but I never dreamed he would go out the yard and catch every chicken in the neighborhood," said Kelley, who came home one day and found chickens piled up in his yard by the dozens that Gyp had gone out and brought in. "Muzzle your dog, Kelley, and keep him in your yard," Magistrate Johnson admonished Kelley.

CHARGES ARE FILED AGAINST YOUTHS

Charges of stealing an automobile and of being delinquent were filed in juvenile court Monday afternoon by James A. Robison, of Jamestown, against Wilbur Honaker, 16 and Paul Honaker, 17, colored lads.

The boys were arrested by Patrolman Jones and Simms Sunday evening. Police say they stole the automobile belonging to Robison from in front of the McClellan Hospital on East Second street, Friday afternoon, with the intention of driving it to New Vienna. The machine was recovered by police Saturday morning on Home avenue.

Monday, Frank H. Dean, attorney for the boys, attempted to secure their release through habeas corpus proceedings as the affidavits against the lads had not yet been filed. Common Pleas Judge C. H. Kyle, order them released by six o'clock in case the papers were not yet filed, but affidavits were filed before that time, and the boys remained to the custody of the sheriff for appearance before Probate Judge J. Carl Marshall at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SPORTS

THANKSGIVING DAY FOOTBALL GAMES TO CLOSE 1920 SEASON

Thanksgiving Day, that day set aside for peace and prayer in giving thanks by the Pilgrim Fathers, will this year as usual see, what will practically be the windup of a most successful football season.

True, there will be a few games played on the following Saturday, and here and there post-season conflicts will be arranged even later than that to decide imaginary championships, but the turkey day battles will in the main, close the season.

There is only one real championship, decided in a real way by honest elimination, and that is the Western Conference Championship, which Ohio State has just won with five straight victories and not a defeat. Many experts who have watched the playing of Coach Wiley's combination, say that Stinchcomb and his mates represent the best team in the country, and that any post-season would-be championship affair arranged, would be easily won by the Ohioans.

Out East, they do not decide championships the way they do in the west. It is mostly a paper and pencil job in the East figuring who should come out on top of the heap. Princeton, Yale and Harvard decide a little triangular championship between themselves by right of heredity, and it does not make any difference how many of the smaller teams take a wallop at the winner. This does not change the championship status one whit.

Xenia fans will watch with interest the Wittenberg-Denison clash Thanksgiving Day. Other games in Ohio include mostly, annual battles that create quite a bit of enthusiasm through the usual school spirit, but which are lacking in interest in other departments. It is the usual thing for Cincinnati to play Miami on Thanksgiving, Ohio Northern and Ohio University, the Ohio twins will battle each other in the cellar and Case and Western Reserve, both in Cleveland and both in about the same class, will furnish excitement at Cleveland. Wooster will play Mt. Union which means that Mt. Union is due to get licked.

Locally there will be plenty of football or near foot ball dished out this week. Thursday morning, the high school will meet the blue and white alumni. Following the game the high school team will be guests of Wittenberg at the Wittenberg-Denison game.

In the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day, the Maroons will take on the Fenwick Club of Cincinnati, in what is expected to be a lively gridiron tilt, and to furnish plenty of action for the fans for the final game.

On the coming Saturday, married and single men who have won their letters at Central High will play a benefit performance for the High School athletic association. The contest, will be the swan-song of the gridiron game for the 1920 season, and with it the game will die until next fall.

WRESTLERS COMPETE FOR PRIZE BELT

Joe Willis, the Swedish Demon, of Huntington, W. Va., who will meet Paul Bowser, of Newark, the middleweight champion in a match at the opera house in this city, is training hard to wrest the middleweight belt from Bowser, according to a letter received from him by Bill Brooks, local wrestler and promoter.

Willis is claiming that he will wrest the Police Gazette middleweight championship belt from Bowser in this attempt or forever hold his peace, and he is training hard to try to throw the Newark boy. Willis declares that if he is beaten in this match it will be because Bowser is much the better man and not through any fault of Willis' in not trying.

These boys who will furnish the main match on the first wrestling card ever arranged in this city, will wrestle at 165 pounds. Preliminary to the main mill, Bill Brooks of this city and Bill Gallagher, of Newark, will wrestle. The local man has not been thrown in the last two years in his class and he is all set for the Newark Irishman when he arrives here next week.

WASHINGTON TEAM ISSUES CHALLENGE TO CIRCLEVILLE

In an effort to secure an opportunity for revenge for the first defeat handed them in two years, Washington, C. H. High School football team has issued a challenge to Circleville High School, which team defeated the Fayette County gridders, 12-6.

In a previous game played between the two schools at Washington, the latter eleven shut-out the Circleville tribe 19-0. In the second game, played at Circleville Coach Moorehead's Washington High footballers, claimed that the decisions of officials were not fair, and they ask that a third game be booked on a neutral gridiron with neutral officials.

GREENE COUNTY OHIO STATE GRADS. MEET

Invitations have been sent announcing the meeting, by the officers of the new established Greene County State Association, and a representative turn-out is expected for that evening. Announcement has been made that a speaker from the university will be present.

The celebration of Ohio State Day is an annual occurrence. On the day following Thanksgiving, former students all over the United States will be holding similar meetings, and it is thought that nearly every county in the state of Ohio will put forth an entertainment.

RAISE OVER $300 FOR OPPORTUNITY SCHOOL

Over $300 was gained by the market and "Tag Day" held by the Parent Teacher Association, last Saturday.

The receipts of the tags were $225 and that of the market $75. The money that was secured is to be used for the benefit of the new Opportunity School.

The Opportunity School was put into operation a week ago through the efforts of Professor Waltz, the Board of Education and the Parent Teacher Association. Money was needed to furnish the children who attended the school, with lunches and material with which to make this new form of education a success.

The School is for children that have been physically hindered in their regular school work, and an opportunity is offered to give the backward child more attention and a chance to get a head in school.

DRUG STORES WILL CLOSE AT 9 A. M.

All drug stores in Xenia are closing now at 9 o'clock in the evening during all week-days with the exception of Saturday.

The early closing was reached by mutual agreement of all the druggists. The fact that there is little business after that hour, and a desire to secure the opportunity to get home early in the evenings, are given as the reasons for the early closing.

START AGITATION FOR FORMATION OF ROTARY CLUB

First real agitation for the organization of a branch of the Rotary Club here was started Monday afternoon at a meeting of six local business men interested in the club, which was held at the Chamber of Commerce.

The Rotary club is the first club of that nature to be started, although a dozen clubs of similar aims have followed it in the field. It is the first in the point of membership, maintaining clubs both on this continent and in Europe. Only one member can be selected from each profession or business.

Local business men who are taking up the project will assist in advertising the organization of the club pending the arrival of the organizer.

A total inheritance tax of $475.52 will be paid on the estate of the late J. C. Barber, as fixed in Probate Court Monday. Barber are allowed $3,500 exemption apiece and on the remainder of which each must pay $287.76. On the portion that goes to Jeanette Barber, all is exempt.

"LASSES" WHITE MAKES BIG HIT.

"Needless to say that Lasses conquered. His songs and jokes and acting received tumultuous applause. The show was too good to review each act. Springfield minstrel lovers will welcome 'Lasses' and his organization any time."

PREVENT SERIOUS BLAZE BY QUICK WORK IN RESIDENCE

Quick work averted a serious fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gage on the Lower Belbrook pike Saturday evening, when an overheated stove ignited the carpet and floor in an upstairs room. The stove had been lit by Vance Gage, who then went to bed. The overheated stove burned a hole in the carpet and the floor, when it was found by Mr. Gage and thrown out of window. Window but the fire was extinguished with little difficulty.

The damage, which will probably amount to about $50 is covered by insurance.

IMPRISONED HEAD OF GUATEMALA WRITES APPEAL TO WILSON

Washington, Nov. 22—Manuel Estrada Cabrera, deposed and imprisoned president of Guatemala, has directed a personal appeal to President Wilson to save him from a death, which he says, is as certain as though he faced a firing squad.

Cabrera's appeal, written in secret in his cell in Guatemala city and smuggled past his guards by friends at the risk of their lives, has reached this country according to prominent Guatemala refugees who arrived here today from Puerto Barrios on their way to New York.

It will be presented to President Wilson, they said, through Secretary of State Colby, to whom its bearers will direct an explanatory note containing their credentials from the ex-president.

The communication, say the refugees, sets forth that Cabrera relinquished the presidency under an agreement signed in the presence of and approved by the diplomatic corps at Guatemala City providing that if he would relinquish the executive power to the government of Carlos Herrera, the present president, without further fighting and bloodshed he would be guaranteed absolute safety and freedom for himself, his suite and protection for his property.

In spite of this solemn agreement according to the refugees, the ex-president was imprisoned in a dungeon, his property seized, his suite arrested and his family impoverished, while he is constantly badgered to reveal to his jailers the hiding place of treasure which he states he does not possess.

PREVENT FAMILY ILLS

Bulgarian Blood Tea is Nature's sweet restorer and contains no harmful drugs. It can be used with safety by every member of the family from Baby to dear old Grandma. A box of this pleasant medicinal tea should be in every home as a first-aid in general family ills. To break up a cold—take it steaming hot at bed-time—it works like magic. It keeps the blood rich and pure—and to relieve constipation, indigestion, sour, gassy stomach, liver, kidney and blood trouble, it is truly marvelous. Sold by all druggists and grocers everywhere.

PRICES LOWER.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22—Hog prices on the local market today dropped to the lowest level since 1913. Good heavy hogs went at $10.75 and the top price was only $11.25, a drop of 40 to 65 cents under Saturday's market.

Gets 28 Eggs A Day Now, From 34 Hens

C. C. White, Well-Known Breeder, Tells How. Costs Nothing to Try.

"I gave Don Sung to 34 utility Buff Orpingtons and the egg yield increased from 7 to 23 a day. Don Sung is a wonder and I am now giving it to all my hens regularly."—Chas. C. White, Mr. Cherry Hill Farm, Blackville, Ind.

Mr. White is the well known breeder and exhibitor. He wrote the above letter in December, after his test had shown a gain of 21 eggs a day from 34 hens. We will make you the same offer we made him. Here it is:

Give your hen Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.00 (includes way tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burdett-Dugger Co., 216 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

HAPPY WOMEN

Plenty of Them in Xenia, and Good Reason for It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, When she finds freedom.

Many readers will profit by the following:

Mrs. Lee Ledbetter, 167 Hill St., Xenia, says: "As I haven't had a bit of kidney trouble for several years, I believe Doan's Kidney Pills gave me permanent cure. Before I used Doan's I was miserable and run down. Mornings, when I got up, I ached all over, and my back was so lame that the least exertion tired me out. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store. I got quick relief and in a short time, was entirely cured."

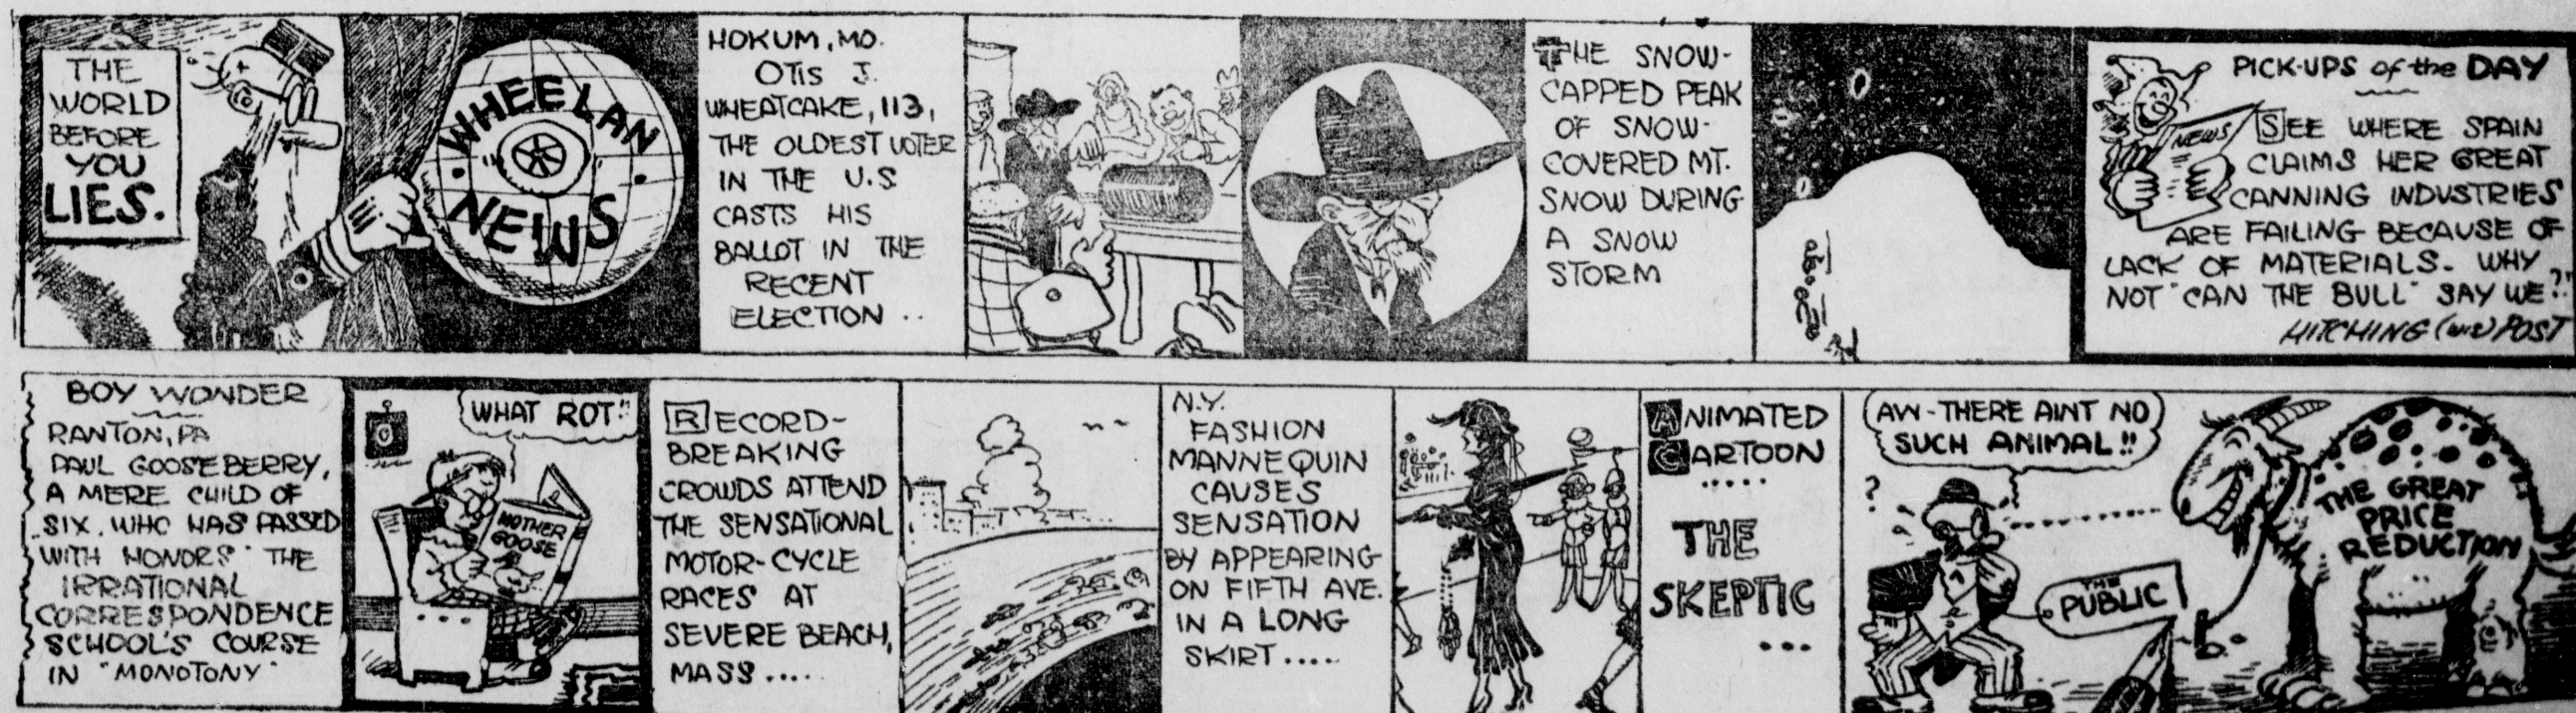

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ledbetter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dick Declares Nan is Extravagant CHAPTER 20

The luncheon was delicious, and beautifully served. We sat talking and laughing over our food until nearly 4 o'clock. Then I asked for the check. I had tried to add it up during the meal, but it had been impossible for me to do it, I of course, I had a sort of an idea what it would amount to, but I felt comfortable to think I had put all Dick had given me in my bag. The check came to a little over $14 and we had only ordered two portions crab meat. I gave the waiter $1.50 at a nod from Clara as I picked the change he brought me. My little party had cost me over $15. But I felt it had been worth it.

Mrs. Stowell's limousine was waiting and she took us home driving through the park.

"Be sure and come and see me soon," she said at parting. We had dropped Clara first, and she had also invited her to call. My husband is wild over your little boy. Come Sunday when he is at home and make that big husband of yours bring the baby. It will please Mr. Stowell immensely."

I accepted blithely. Dick would be pleased. I knew he liked Mr. Stowell. Her invitation might make it easier for me to confess my extravagance about the luncheon.

Clara telephoned me almost as soon as I got home.

"I just couldn't wait! I wanted to talk things over with you," she said when I answered.

"It was all right, wasn't it? Everything?"

"I should say it was! couldn't have been nicer if she had given it. Even if she is so rich. But that's the way to do. When you give a party do it up brown even if you can't do it often."

"I shall have to eat dry crackers for a month to pay for this!" I replied, laughing, yet feeling it was the truth nevertheless.

Not once did a thought that I had wronged my husband enter my mind, or that I had robbed him by spending his money so extravagantly. He denied himself in every way, smoking, lunches, in many little economies while I not only had "treated" my friends to an extravagant—for us—luncheon, but had also given the waiter a substantial tip.

But I was a bit anxious as to what he would say. I was quite sure he would be hurt because I had not thought my home good enough to entertain Mrs. Stowell in. But he should make more money—then we could live in a place where I wouldn't be mortified to have people like her visit me. I thought. Anyway she was his friend before she had become mine and it was for his sake as much as my own that I wanted to have things nice for her—so I persuaded myself.

It is easy to make one's self believe things. Especially when we want to believe them.

I told Dick about Mrs. Stowell's invitation for Sunday. He seemed pleased and agreed to go. Then he asked the usual question:

"What have you been doing today? Did you and Junior go out?"

"I went out, downtown. Mrs. Dooly stayed with Junior."

"Where did you go?"

Dick had no idea of quizzing me, that I knew. He was simply making talk. Yet I felt annoyed with him. I intended to tell him: I had to, because

Mrs. Stowell would be sure to mention it Sunday. But I wanted to tell him my own way.

"I went to the Waldorf to luncheon with Mrs. Stowell and Clara."

"I didn't know they were acquainted. Who gave the luncheon, Mrs. Stowell?"

"They weren't acquainted until today. And I gave the luncheon!" There it was out.

"You gave a luncheon at the Waldorf! What kind of a luncheon?"

"A very good one," I did not like his tone.

"But, Nan. I don't understand. We cannot afford any such extravagance now—we aren't out of debt yet, and you are constantly talking of what you need." I shivered when he said we weren't out of debt. He little knew how deeply we were in debt.

"Well, I had to do it, and I just wouldn't entertain them here!" and although I am not the weepy kind I commenced to cry. For once Dick paid no attention to my tears.

"How much did it cost?"

"Fourteen dollars." I would say nothing of the tip.

"Nan! You spent $14 at the Waldorf when three or four would have entertained them just as well at home if you felt you must do it when I need a suit of clothes so badly, and you also say you need hat and dress!"

"Well, it's done, so there's no good scolding. I won't have to do it again for a long time."

"I wish you had spoken to me about it, dear, I—"

"I did it on impulse," I returned. "Now let's forget it! I'll save it in some way, you're so wrought up over it. I'll go without something I need."

Tomorrow—Dick Extols His Firm.

Shorty drops in on New York!

Here we are, Pete!

New York.
Wednesday

Camped once more in the plumb centre of our old stamping grounds—rubbing elbows with the roaring racket and running flush into more electric displays, blazing posters and swashing signs that sound the joys of Camel cigarettes than you'd ever believe could be jammed into one town! When I hit Broadway this p.m. I figured "Camel City" had been transplanted right up here!

It seems like all New Yorkers have adopted Camels as their own personal brand! And, Pete, since this is the original speed town, it's only what you expect when you see 'em carry a package of Camels in each car pocket! If their right hand is busy they dig out their left hand deck—they just won't lose time getting a Camel lighted! That's the quit, old thoroughbred!

And, Peter, the New Yorker has his own A-1 pet reason why he's so keen for Camels! For instance, Doc Marshall will bet his car on Camels for quality against any cigarette in the world! Bill James says to me: "Shorty, there never was mild, mellow body like Camels!" And, as for Dan Boggs—he spills it that Camels are the only cigarette free from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or cigarette odor! Frank Frager will tell you it's Camels wonderful Turkish & Domestic blend! And, ALL of them are right!

And, Pete, old proof-of-the-pudding—you tell 'em that Missouri hasn't anything on little old New York when it comes to that "show me" stuff on cigarettes—or anything else!

Sincerely
Shorty.
